- Articles 96 and 97 of the Law dated 22nd April 1941, No 633 on the subject of the “protection of copyright and other rights related to its exercise”, also imply IEG’s obligation to collect the prior written consent by the party involved regarding the use of the aforementioned materials, objects and products (e.g. jewels, creative materials etc.) as well as their photographic and video reproductions and any photographic, text and audio files of any interviews provided by the party involved.

We hereby declare, pursuant to articles 13-14 of the GDPR, that IEG will, also through their own staff and/or third-party suppliers, collect and process photographic images and/or interviews related to individuals, in particular the participants in the event “The Pastry Queen Championship” and their material objects (e.g. jewels, creative materials etc.) of their property and/or production, attributable to the signatory subject, for either exclusive disclosure or corporate communication as well as for advertising and promotional purposes, in particular, merely by way of example and not in an exhaustive fashion, through publishing in newspapers, magazines, TV programmes, posters, informative and/or illustrative brochures, newsletters, websites -- such as the www.iegexpo.it website and related sites -- social media profiles (Facebook, Twitter, WhatsApp, YouTube, Vimeo and the likes), on e-books (digital publishing), and in printed publications (exhibition catalogues, Trendbook, etc.), in general (please note that this list is only an example and not necessarily exhaustive).

You can ask us for a list of joint controllers, autonomous and external managers (see the "rights of the interested party" section of this information).

Transfer of data abroad

We communicate the data to third party recipients based outside the EU (companies controlled by the Data Controller, partners - eg. People's Republic of China, United Arab Emirates, Colombia, Hong-Kong - cloud service providers, or suppliers and customers (hereinafter the "importers").

The list of third parties recipients of the data is available on the website section – LINK.

RELEASE FORM AND PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION INFORMATION

This data transfer takes place in the face of adequate guarantees, consisting of the prior stipulation by the third importer of a contractual agreement with us through which he, for the treatments within his competence, undertakes to comply with privacy obligations substantially equivalent to those provided for by EU legislation to ns. load (through the use of standard contractual clauses - or "CCS" - compliant at least with the text adopted by the EU Commission, except for any additions and / or changes more favorable to the interested party).

In some cases of data transfer to cloud suppliers based outside the EU, these suppliers are subject to the regulatory powers of local public authorities and in some situations, based on foreign legislation, (in the USA: the Federal Trade Commission, 'Article 702 of the FISA and the Executive Order EO 12333) the importer may be obliged to communicate the personal data transferred, in response to requests received from public authorities, to meet national security requirements (e.g. anti-terrorism) or application of local law (with consequent possible access to data, of which the importer, based on local legislation, may not have to give notice to the exporter and the interested party, who will therefore not be able to exercise the relative rights normally recognized by the GDPR).

Therefore, in the abstract, the risk cannot be excluded that in certain and exceptional situations related to the aforementioned specific requirements, the foreign public authority may process such data without applying substantially equivalent safeguards to those provided for by the GDPR to the data subject. However, the risk that the American public authority actually has an interest in applying local legislation to the transferred data appears to be reasonably negligible based on the following circumstances:

- i) the performance of the exporter (IEG) in favor of the interested parties whose data the importer processes and the consequent data processing, have a limited object (the provision of exhibition services) and a limited purpose (the management of technical processes - organizational functional to the aforementioned services and the fulfillment of legal obligations); the performance does not involve the publication of personal opinions, comments or similar information, nor the making available of services or products that can be used in activities against national security;
- ii) the types of personal data transferred are limited (eg personal, contact, contractual, administrative data); no particular categories of data are transferred (e.g. on political and religious opinions, biometrics); the categories of interested parties to which the data refer are limited (exhibitors, visitors, participants in events, buyers, journalists, speakers) and they concern operators belonging to product or economic categories that are not reasonably relevant with regard to national security purposes ( eg tourism, wellness, machine handling, sports activities, and so on).

Therefore, IEG believes that the CCS applied in the relationship with importers (in particular the USA) effectively guarantee protection of the rights of interested parties substantially similar to that provided for by the GDPR, regardless of the application of any additional measures to the processing in question.

The adoption of additional contractual measures by IEG towards importers (e.g. obligations to communicate public access, the right to suspend or terminate the transfer and to terminate the contract with the importer, and the like), may be introduced in at any time by the exporter following any information provided to operators by the EDPB - European Data Protection Board following the judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Communities (ECJ) of 17 July 2020 which declared the bilateral agreement called "Privacy Shield").

RELEASE FORM AND PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION INFORMATION

The transfer of data to the non-EU country takes place in any case also because it is necessary for the execution of i) a contract concluded between the interested party and IEG and / or pre-contractual measures adopted at the request of the interested party, or ii) of a contract stipulated between IEG and another natural or legal person (e.g. our subsidiary, supplier, with headquarters outside the EU, etc.) in favor of the interested party.

Duration of treatment

In the case of the purposes sub 1 e/o 2 we treat the data for 10 years from date of the contract (in the case of customers) from the collection of the data of the interested party (in the case of prospects).

In the case of the purposes sub 3 and 4 we treat the data for 10 years from the collection of the data of the interested party (in the case of customers and prospects).

We process the data for a period of 5 years from the publication of the product in the case of promotion of editorial products.

We process the data for a period of 60 days, after the end of each Event, in the case of data made available at collection points for requests for assistance communicate to us by visitors and exhibitors (including insurance desk, Info point and Emergency Room).

We treat the data contained in the promotional catalog (paper and / or digital) of the individual Events for a maximum of 2 editions of the catalog.

We treat certification data of the Events / Events up to the end of the certification and therefore until certification has taken place.

We treat the data necessary for the purposes of computer security (eg log-in registrations, failed logs and log-outs, when accessing restricted areas on the IEG websites related to the Events) for 1 year from collection. The recordings of the logs related to the reading of IEG online privacy information and the on-line actions (eg clicks, flags and the like) through which IEG is informed of the data subject's consent are kept for 10 years from collection .

In the event of a dispute between you and us or our third party suppliers process the data for the time necessary to exercise the protection of our rights or those of the third party suppliers, that is up to the issue and full execution of a provision having the value of a res judicata between the parties or of a transaction.

The data connected to the "Business Matching" service provided during the Events are treated for 3 months from the end of the single Event to which they refer.

The data related to the drafting of invitation letters for the request of consular visas (eg. Copy of the passport, etc.) are processed for 3 months from the end of the single Event to which they refer. Once the aforementioned maximum duration has ceased, the personal data are definitively destroyed or made totally anonymous.
